A. Drawing (80 points)

1. Please draw the figure of the skull or spine in details realistically.

2. Then, please add any imagined objects to above drawing and create an image that presents your personal ideas.

3. Finally, please name your drawing when you finish.
B. Choose three among the four following questions, and write down your answers on the paper provided.

(120 points)

1. Try to comment on the composition of the following design (figure 1) with the perspective of Gestalt psychology.

2. Please analyze the similarities and differences of Western & Chinese painting with the emphasis of aesthetics.

3. Please provide your statement about the essence of traditional Chinese Art of Writing and its future perspective in this new century.

4. What role can graphic designers play in the knowledge economy?